My dear Mr. Meredith

Words cannot express my sincere and heartfelt congratulations to you on entering Mississippi & I hope and good wishes and thoughts of success could help them did my fate.

Your gallant conduct has made possible great strides in every phase of desegregation.

Many good wishes for you in your future endeavors.

I am here in Flatbush, Brooklyn live in an integrated neighborhood and like it. Colored and white children go to school, study and play together.

Perhaps all children will be the next leaders in an integrated United States. Or maybe there won't even be a United States then. Like you I bet our men here will be sure won't be.

Truly
Mrs S. Seppman
